

Live Fire Exemption Instructions

Current Armed Forces of the United States of America, Veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States of America or Kentucky peace officers are eligible for live fire exemption.

Step 1

Email the Hunter Training Officer https://fw.ky.gov/More/Documents/hunter\_ed\_regions.pdf in your area one of the following:

1. Current front and back copy of an individual's military identification card; or *Email must be sent as an encrypted email for security purposes.
2. Copy of an Armed Forces veteran's DD Form 214 *Please remove/blackout SSN
3. Copy of an Armed Forces veteran's DD Form 256 *Please remove/blackout SSN
4. A letter from the certified Kentucky peace officer's employer on an official letterhead stating the individual is employed by the agency and is a Kentucky peace officer as established in KRS 15.380 and certified as established in KRS 15.404.

Step 2

Your Hunter Training Officer will email you a registration link. Please follow the link emailed to you and fill out the registration page. *You will NOT need to attend this event. This is only a way for us to capture your information for your Hunter Education Card. Once complete, please email the Hunter Training Officer back that you have completed this step.

Step 3

Please allow 2 weeks and check your MYProfile at fw.ky.gov or go to <https://app.fw.ky.gov/HECardLookup/Default.aspx> to print or view your Hunter Education card.
